WHITEWOOD.

On Friday last the postponed meeting of the 26th ult. of the Liberal-Conservatives of Whitewood was held in the Woodbine Hotel through the kind permission of Mr. Daniel Hunter, and as had been announced, Mr. W. D. Perley addressed the electors. The weather was somewhat favorable though cold and a good meeting was the result. On motion of Mr. Murrell Gillies, Charles Marshall, Esq., M.N.W.C., was called to the chair. Mr. Marshall briefly acknowledged the honor of the position and called attention to the importance of the occasion, the novelty of the situation and the greatness of the step the meeting was about to take in the history of the country, that of considering the fitness of a man who should represent them for the first time in the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada. Mr. Marshall said he could not call Mr. Perley a stranger for through him (Mr. Marshall) they had from time to time heard so much of Mr. Perley's doings as a Northwest Councillor, that to a great extent in that manner Mr. Perley was familiar to them. The chairman then introduced Mr. Perley to the meeting.

Mr. Perley on rising congratulated the Association on the good attendance present. He said he had on occasions like this to call attention to many things he had taken part in since he had been before the Northwest as a public man, and was forced to introduce into his speeches the letter "P" very frequently and for that he would offer an apology. Mr. Perley said one of the first things he had, in conjunction with his late colleague, Mr. T. W. Jackson, been energetic in bringing before the Government, was the removal of the mile belt restrictions, and so far as he could recall to mind, it was upon this subject that he had first taken the platform in this country. It had been claimed by his opponents, for he believed he now had an opponent in the field, that he was objected to because he was self-nominated. He begged to call their attention to the fact that up to the present moment he had not asked one of them for their pledge, that it was within a few days back only that he had issued his address, that his stand in the Council and his success at Ottawa as the chairman of the delegates sent from the Northwest to the Privy Council of the Dominion, was the grounds which his supporters had taken in claiming that he should stand as a candidate for the House of Commons. He was a Liberal-Conservative, but he trusted to be able to show his constituents that he was made of sterner stuff than some M. P.'s; that he had the courage of his convictions and the pluck to speak them. He was in favor of the National Policy, but admitted that it was not altogether in the interests of the Northwest, and that being so he was at liberty to discriminate upon the relief which the Northwest should have in that direction. Mr. Perley sketched the history of the Canadian Pacific Railway. His attention was called to the platform of the Liberal or Reform party made at Broadview on the previous Tuesday, when the selection of Mr. Dickie had been made in the Reform list rest. They had made Mr. Dickie a platform, they had made Mr. Blake a platform, he was glad to see, for up to then Mr. Blake had no platform. (A voice) "But read the Liberal platform and you will see a proper platform." Mr. Perley, "oh, I will read it fast enough, you will see." He saw by the Reform platform that they would, when they had a Legislative Assembly, seek a subsidy on the basis of population, this was simply ridiculous as they knew what the population was; did they know how much the subsidy would thus amount to? Mr. Perley condemned the opposition of eastern Canada to the building of the Hudson's Bay Railway. He had been a farmer in eastern Canada, and if he was a farmer there still he would regard it in quite a different light, its construction and success would be a means of keeping up the price of eastern Canada's produce, of keeping up the value of eastern Canadian land. They were suicidal in opposing its construction. The season too at which the Hudson Bay waters would be navigable was in Providence exactly the season when the outlet was required in the interests of the country. He had the same ideas as regards the lumber duties as the Reformers had. He had the benefit of being able to speak with more confidence also upon pre-emptions and homesteads than his opponent for he had made these matters prominent ones when before the Cabinet last winter when discussing these matters with the Hon. the Minister of the Interior. The matter of the taxation of land sold by the C. P. R. and the taxation of the crown property in townships, had his sympathy, for they were amongst the items he had advocated as a Northwest delegate. He recommended the Ballot, it was simply a matter of time, the Ballot necessarily followed certain local systems, when they had municipal government, assessment rolls, etc., to refer to, the Ballot would follow, but in an open country it was simply impracticable. As regards Prohibition which his opponent alluded to, as a temperance man he was prepared to speak boldly, and it was this: when he came before the public to take charge of public interests he was not at liberty to ride his own hobby, and temperate as he was and would continue to be, this was a matter in which he would only vote the opinions of his constituents. He would abolish the permit system and the system which should succeed it should be the one which the people themselves required. He would do all in his power to hasten the time when in their own legislative assembly they could decide that for themselves. The present system of granting permits was right once when the railway was being constructed and the means of controlling a liquor traffic, not at hand, but this law had outlived its usefulness. He would condemn the privilege the C. P. R. possessed of selling liquor on board the cars on transit through the country. Mr. Perley gave the history of the successes of the Northwest delegation to the Privy Council at Ottawa. He eulogized the present Government for coming to the aid of settlers next spring with seed grain. Mr. Perley thanked the meeting for the attention they had granted him, he promised them in return for their support the most undivided attention to their interests, faithfulness to the trust they reposed in him and a constant attendance at his post, the post of duty and of watchfulness for the interests of the Northwest.

Mr. Henry Nesbitt proposed a vote of confidence in Mr. Perley's ability to represent them in the House of Commons, this was seconded by Samuel Wilson, J. P., and carried by a nearly unanimous show of hands. Mr. Perley left Whitewood to address another meeting at Forest Farm in the evening.

Pen and the Valiant have commenced an extensive trade.

Four regiments of infantry will be sent to reinforce the Militia garrison.

It is estimated that over fifty thousand men are on strike in New York and vicinity.

REMEDY FOR FROST BITES.

To the Editor of the Progress.—

Sir: Having had my attention drawn to the recent lamentable mishap to the Balcarras mail carrier who has lost both his hands through the effects of frost, I think as much assistance as possible should be afforded the general public to enable them to deal with any cases where parties have had their extremities badly frozed. For this purpose I should be glad if you could find space to publish in your columns what (from a long residence in cold countries and during which I have had charge of many severe cases) I have found to be the best means of restoring vitality gradually to the frozen members.

Starting at the outset with the fact that the thawing process must originate from within, it is absolutely necessary that the part or parts affected be kept entirely free from external heat, such as placing the person in an overheated room or fire, but this fact is not to prevent the carrying out of the following treatment in a moderately heated room: Having provided a good supply of fresh, cold water, keep the parts completely immersed, taking care to constantly change the water, as in this lies the efficacy of the cure in severe cases. On no account take the frozen parts out of the water until the frost has been extracted and circulation restored. When circulation has been restored, dry the parts gently but quickly, and saturate with camphor ball, vasoline, glycerine or any soft grease or oil. I have always used camphor ball, and cannot too forcibly impress upon all settlers the expediency of having a supply of it at all times on hand in their homes. It is prepared by slowly melting together 1 lb. of 3oz. gum camphor and 3oz. bees wax, put in jars ready for use. Finally, do not attempt to allow the parts to thaw externally until you can procure a supply of cold water.

Yours respectfully,
ROBERT CHAMFORD, M.N.W.C.
Indian Head, 23rd Jan., 1887.

Sir Alex. Campbell has retired from the Dominion Government through ill-health, being succeeded as Postmaster-General by Hon. Mr. McLean. Sir Charles Tupper has been sworn in as Minister of Finance. Sir Charles and Mr. McLean are now in Nova Scotia. This gives Nova Scotia three Cabinet ministers. Sir Alexander Campbell may go to London as High Commissioner in Tupper's place. Mr. McLean will probably re-enter the Senate, and become the leader of the Conservatives there. Sir Alexander's retirement will take from the Conservative councils one of their oldest leaders. He has been a member of the Canadian Government continuously since 1864, with the exception of the years 1873-78, and has during that time led the Conservative party in the Senate.

The proposed retaliatory measures of the United States Government are commented upon by leading Canadian papers. While all discuss the matter in a tone of regret, some profess to think the threats are merely a piece of bluster and express the opinion that should the proposed measures be adopted they will be unavailing. Others take a more serious view of the matter, but assert that a policy of non-retaliation, if put into effect, would be injurious to the United States as to Canada. It is agreed on all hands, however, that the Canadian Government, come what may, must maintain its dignity and protect its rights.

THE BONUS.

In other columns will be found letters on the bonus to the Wood Mountain and Qu'Appelle Railway.
We commend to our readers the letter signed "G. M." We do not think we are unauthorized in stating that the writer is the same who was the author of the letter in THE PROGRESS in November last, to which Mr. Thos. Wright refers in such triumphant terms in his long ramble of last week. The letter speaks for itself by the excellent points made in favor of the present bonus. There is a letter from Mr.
W. T. Thompson, C. E., which confirms his former letter as to the location of the railway. From reports from all parts of the municipality we are pleased to learn that the great majority of the farmers are determined to assert their intelligence and loyalty to their own interests by voting for the bylaw, as they have learned that the benefits they will derive will be of such immense advantage to them as the pioneers of the country. The municipal council has passed a by-law disqualifying all from voting who have not paid their taxes, and every effort will be made to poll all the favorable votes. Therefore we look for a triumph for progress and development in the passing of the bylaw granting a bonus to the railway.

THE CAMPAIGN.

From all parts of the district come cheering news as to the success of Mr. Perley's candidature for the Commons. He is prosecuting a successful canvass, and from the east we learn that he will have large majorities all along the line, and we know the west will not be behind in that respect. He is at present in the Moose Mountain district, the section where his opponent resides. As we will, no doubt, have an opportunity of seeing and hearing Mr. Dickie at the nomination next Tuesday, we defer further reference at present. In our next issue we will review his platform, contending ourselves for the present by pointing out the fact that it is a rehash of the memorials presented by the delegation from the Northwest Council, to Ottawa last winter, of which Mr. Perley was chairman.

Ottawa Journal: The story told by the Mail's correspondent at Winnipeg of the attempt of Dickie to induce the Blackfoot to rise in 1878-9 has been linked at previously, but never given with distinctness or supported by the use of names or dates.
We should judge that it is true, both from this and from the fact that the author of this revised version, Mr.
E. H. Ham, is a newspaper man with too much common sense to identify his name with any such story.

EASTERN ASSINIBOIA.

It is not to be wondered at that Mr. Perley's candidature is meeting with general endorsement in Eastern Assiniboia, or that he is assured of Perley's best efforts have been expended on behalf of the Northwest ever since he became a resident of the Territories. He has been a faithful and outspoken representative of the people of Assiniboia in the Northwest Council. As a delegate from that body to Ottawa, in the early part of last year, he acquitted himself to the entire satisfaction of the people of the Northwest, securing most important concessions for them from the Federal authorities.

He is not a self-nominated candidate. He has only entered the political field at the urgent solicitation of a large number of influential electors of Eastern Assiniboia. His address to the electorate which he has been asked to represent, and which he will represent, shows him to be "a manly man," and therefore one after the heart of the average "Westerner."

Mr. Perley pledges himself to use his utmost efforts to secure for the Territories responsible government.
Although declaring himself not generally in favor of second homesteading, he promises to use his best efforts on behalf of those who settled in the Northwest in the expectation of being allowed that privilege. Mr. Perley likewise promises to use his influence in favor of railway extension in the Northwest. Also, like a true Northwest man, he favors the building as soon as possible of the Hudson's Bay railway.

In short Mr. Perley is a thorough going "Northwesterner." He speaks out fearlessly and honestly. Such conduct will beyond doubt commend him to the people whose suffrages he is seeking. It may therefore confidently be expected that ere long he will be an able and valuable representative of the Territories in Parliament.—Manitoba.

In Eastern Assiniboia Mr. W. D.
Perley, member of the Northwest Council is out. He has already given proof of his qualifications as a representative by his upright, manly and capable conduct in the council. He is thoroughly acquainted with the requirements of the district which he will represent; is a man of sterling integrity, and sound practical common sense. He is in every way a creditable candidate, and will make a worthy representative. The electors of Eastern Assiniboia should strengthen his hands in Parliament by returning him by acclamation or at least by an overwhelming majority.—Manitoba.

In Mr. Perley we have a tried man who has already made his mark as a genuine Northwest man both in Council and in his capacity as a delegate to Ottawa, and in his hand the electors may rest assured our interests will be carefully guarded.—Mooseman Courier.

BONUS.

To the Editor of The Progress.

McLean, Feb. 7th, 1887.

Sir: It is gratifying even at the eleventh hour to find that before it is entirely too late, the farmers of this municipality have been enabled to get a proper understanding in regard to the railway bonus question. Although many of us opposed it at first in very hearty style, yet, when it is remembered that this opposition commenced under circumstances so different from those to which the question is now presented in, and that we felt fully justified in such opposition, it surely cannot be considered in any way derogatory to our understanding or intelligence that we now turn from that opposition to support the bonus as heartily as we formerly opposed it.

Still so strong is the feeling in some against giving up any opinion or argument they have once formed and upheld, that even now a few still cling to their opposition of the bonus even after they are fully convinced in their own mind that they were on the wrong side of the issue. But why should it be thought such a disgraceful thing to change sides on any important question, especially when that question comes up under very different circumstances from those under which our first opinions were formed.

Of course a few cry "turncoat" but if a man follows his convictions, and decides according to his best judgment such cry will break no bones, and is far more applicable to those who, having supported the question under far more disadvantageous circumstances, turn in opposition to it when it is presented to us in a far more favorable light.

The pro's and con's of this bonus question have been pretty fully aired through the columns of The Progress, still there are some who do not seem to have grasped the leading points, why we should vote for and not against this bonus. I will some one had brought them out in a clearer light before this, but as it has not been done and the time is drawing to a close I venture a few remarks in connection therewith, and beg to offer the same excuse for any prolixity that the ancient orator of old for making such a long speech at the council board, namely that I had not time to make a short one.

One point I wish to touch on is that of getting work on the railroad.
Now sir, it is the opinion of a great many (and it looks very plausible) that the grading will be done by the great grading machines now known to be in the country, and owned by R. R. contractors. But sir, it is not so generally known as it should be that those machines cannot be operated in stony land, and we know the land between Qu'Appelle Station and the Fort contains not a few stones and boulders; and again it has been ascertained that the cost of moving dirt with these machines is not less than ten cents per cubic yard, and further it has been ascertained that the cost of moving dirt by man and team, last fall on the work north of Qu'Appelle Station, was less than eight cents per cubic yard, so that could these machines be operated here it is clear that they would not if the work could be done cheaper by employing local labor.

As time and space will not permit me to go into detail in regard to the advantages that would accrue, to all concerned in the welfare of this municipality, by the construction of this R. R. through it, I will close by noting that the residents to the east and west of us can see the advantage of getting the R. R. and therefore are using their utmost endeavor to get it, and no doubt are anxious to see the bylaw here defeated in order that they may stand some chance of securing it.
Thanking you for so much space,
I remain,
G. M.

To the Editor of The Progress.

Sir: I observe in your last issue a letter from Mr. Wright opposing the Railway bylaw. On this subject he is at war with himself, having at the railway meeting on the 6th November last, advanced much stronger arguments in favor of a bonus than any he has since brought forward against it. His leading idea appears to be that even if the bylaw is not carried, the railway will run through this municipality and the town of Qu' Appelle. Unfortunately Mr.
Wright is in error, for in such an event I am satisfied that the function will not be at Qu'Appelle, and repeat the statement contained in my former letter.

Yours truly,
W. T. THOMPSON,
Qu'Appelle, Feb. 8th, 1887.

Correspondence.

Our columns are open to all provided the subject matter is of public interest, and proper language is used, but in no case do we hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by correspondents.

SUNNYMEAD.

To the Editor of The Progress.

Sir: Will you kindly allow me space in The Progress to give a true and unvarnished statement of the facts of a case brought against me as published by you in your issue under date Feb. 2nd, 1887. One Lawrence Bonny, went to a party at which I was present. He was not sober when he arrived there, and had not been there long before he got paralyzed drunk, rolled on the floor in a corner of the house until some two hours after two N. W. M. Police, one of whom was little soberer than himself, took him home. On the following night at half-past 22 o'clock, he (Bonny) suddenly discovers he has lost $20 and makes his loss known to the above mentioned police, and tell-them he had his money moved so he could swear by it. Under this information they begin to work up the case by going round and inquiring of the tradespeople and others if they have received any $10 bills. One Hillier, agent C. P. R. station, had received such a bill which happened to be on the bank claimed by Bonny.

He (Bonny) before he is allowed to see the bill by the agent above named, is asked if he can swear to the bill.
His answer is that he cannot, by marks, but thinks he can by the creases in the bill. He is shown the bill and says he thinks it is his.
Whereupon the agent says he received the bill from me.

Thomas Gamble Lyons, J. P., known by almost every settler and resident in the district to be most unscrupulous, bigoted and revengeful, regardless of the law in any case, hence the hanging of his effigy by the people of Whitewood last summer, took up the case, as against me, whom he has made the special butt of his hatred, as I had on one occasion, with the backing of other members of the Bench, there sitting upon the case to openly give my unqualified opinion from the evidence there produced, that the said Thomas Gamble Lyons, J. P., was in collusion with the plaintiff to extort money, hence the hanging above referred to. In any case now pending the proceedings were conducted very much like setting a trap, viz.: by order of T. G. Lyons, J. P., the N. W. M. Police were ordered to go and ask any person that was thought would be of any use to strengthen the case, to attend on a given day, without any document of authority. However, an associate justice, a particular friend of Lyons's, was also asked to attend the farce upon justice. Every thing was now in readiness for the warrant to arrest.
The associate justice, who had more sense than T. G. Lyons, J. P., gave him credit for, would not sign. All the above little arrangements, went on without my knowledge. I ran into the trap, however, by being in Whitewood on business, just in time for them to huddle around and get out an information which was dated some three days ahead, and which information and summons was placed in my hands at 15 o'clock, commanding me to appear before the above mentioned trixters at 15:30, same day, or 30 minutes afterwards. I put in an appearance, and found that the said Lawrence Bonny had backed out of the case, saying he could not prove his loss against me with regard to his $20 money, but that T. G. Lyons, J. P., compelled him to give evidence. The N. W. M. Police becoming the real prosecutors. The worthy dispensers of justice above referred to, did not ask me to plead, but called Lawrence Bonny, who commenced to give his evidence when he was asked could he identify the bill. He said he could, but presently qualified that by saying to the best of his belief he could.
However, Lyons, J. P., refused to alter his statement, although, when it was read over to him, Bonny asked him to correct it, giving the court to understand that he could not swear to the bill in question but in his property, as published by you in your issue under date above quoted. But to continue; Bonny being through his evidence and having no more to say for the prosecution, I had almost said persecution, I commenced to ask the witness a question, but was peremptorily silenced by the justices.
At this point I asked T. G. Lyons, J.
P., for a Criminal Law of Canada which he had brought with him, and thereupon pointed out to him the Law as especially laid down, which gives the defendant the right to ask such questions. He pushed the book from him, closed it and commenced to write out commitment without more ado. All this was done in an open court much to the manifest disgust of everyone present. Had I not believed that a few questions asked would have set the matter at rest, I should have asked for an adjournment of the case to procure legal advice. Being innocent of any wrong doing in the matter, I have, as any sane man can see, been stabbed in the back by an unselfish and contemptible man as ever disgraced the name and bearing of a justice of the Peace.

I am, Sir,
S. Wilson, J. P.

BEEF FOR FOOD.

The Feeding That Is Necessary in Order To Make the Best Beef.

It is not the heaviest nor the fittest animal that should bring the highest price for the butcher's block, but that animal giving the largest per cent. of lean meat to live weight. Such an animal will always contain fat enough with the meat fiber to make it palatable, juicy and nourishing. The fat parts of beef cattle or mutton sheep are little used as human food. Hence the carcasses must ever be the greatest proportion of lean meat (muscle) to the carcass.

It is well known that steers quickly fed to fatness on sweet, lush pasturage give the most succulent and finely flavored food. Why? The relative proportion of fat and lean is normal. Fat cows sell for less money per pound than steers. Why again? The proportion of fat to lean is greater, as the principal cause, and, as a secondary reason, although better flavored than that of the bull, the meat of the cow is not so delicate as that of the steer.

Fashion, however, years ago decided that a carcass must be considered inferior if it did not show immense development of fat, even to great patches on the outside. It was established in the "good old days" of fatness, when fat was one of the most important parts of the animal. So long as fashion demands this feeders must enter to it. Indian corn will easily make fat. Sow for a richer phosphate and nitrogen, however, is required with corn, to keep the proportion of fat and lean equal. If the true relation between fat and lean were understood by the buyer this could be produced probably cheaper to the consumer than the monsters of fat so much admired at our fat-stock shows. Yet so long as the feeder and buyer will take pride in these fat-overloaded animals there will be no change. The fact, however, remains constant: the last two hundred pounds of fat added to a steer, rye in flesh, add only to the cost of the animal ten cents per pound.

One of the results of the fashion has been the forcing of breeding cattle until they now, through heredity, early develop fat abnormally. The young of a mountain of beefsteak fat is good with wonder. Grade Devons and well-bred native steers, however, continue to fill the eye of the butcher and the true gastronomist. It is so in England. The black cattle, the Devon, and the graded Hereford bring the best prices at the butcher's market. The reaction has already set in in the United States to the effect that a yearling or two-year-old, however fat, does not constitute a beef animal, and in the case of the wonderful animal of bovine development, the Short Horn, serviceable animals, even what would be called by some breeders "plumy bred" what is really a professional pride that in a hundred dollars for would call "useful"—these are coming to have more and more advocates year by year. They are no wonders of process in fatness, but they are nevertheless, as the animals, whatever the breed, that brought an hundred to one hundred and fifty dollars for a bull, will pay one hundred per cent. on the investment to breed grades on the common stock of the breeding farmer. If they lack somewhat of early maturity they give stout early feeding calves that will make thick-fleshed steers and cows of more than average position at the market. There would seem to be no better time or the intending purchaser than now to enable the bull to become fully "wrought" to the limit before the breeding season commences. Chicago Tribune.

The Art of Early Mating.

The proper time to mate, says the Lancet, is when deep sleep is being should not be allowed. Deep sleep is the aggregate of sleep, or is a state consisting in the sleeping or rest of all the several parts of the organism. Sometimes one and at other times another part of the body, as a whole, may be the least fast asleep, and so the first to awake, or the most exhausted and therefore the most difficult to arouse.

The secret of good sleep is the physiological conditions of rest being established, so to work and weary the several parts of the organism as to give them a proportionally equal need of rest at the same moment, and to wake early and feel ready to rise, a fair and equal start of the sleepers should be secured; and the wise self-manager should know a drowsy feeling of the consciousness of weary senses, or of exhausted muscular system, to beguile him into the folly of going to sleep again when once he has been aroused.

After a few days of self-discipline, the man who resolves not to doze that is not to allow some sleepy part of his body to keep him in bed after his brain has once awakened, will find himself, without knowing why, an early riser. Popular Science Monthly.

Domestic postage in Mexico is higher than foreign, and there is not a postal card in the country. Freshly from the first of last January there was a postal-card in use costing three cents, but it could only be used in sending to foreign countries and mailed only at the office where purchased.

HOME & GOSSIP.

QU'APPELLE.

—Valentines.
—Vote for the railway.
—St. Valentine, Feby. 14.
—A nice assortment of valentines at The Progress store.
—The Reform Association met in the school house on Saturday last.
—Mr. T. T. Thompson left for Nova Scotia on Monday morning last.
—Call and see the Valentines at The Progress store. All kinds at low prices.
—A fancy dress ball is on the tapis for easter week, under the auspices of the Qu'Appelle brass band.

—Miss A. McLane will shortly open a millinery and fancy store in the premises opposite Mr. G. H. V. Bulley's furniture store.

—Mr. T. H. Bell, a brother of Dr. G. P. Bell, has purchased through Mr. F. L. Oser, the west half of sec. 5 in this township, for $1,600.

—Mr. James Weidman, editor of The Progress has gone to Winnipeg to attend the meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge which is in session today.

—The municipal council met on Saturday last and again on Tuesday. Mr. A. C. Paterson refused to act longer as clerk on the salary offered, and the council asked Mr. A. M. McLane to take the position, which he accepted.

—The Qu'Appelle Liberal Conservative Association met on Saturday last in McLane's hall and prepared for effective work in the coming election for the Commons. The candidature of Mr. W. D. Perley was enthusiastically endorsed. That gentleman will receive a large vote here both from Conservatives and Reformers.

—Under the auspices of the Qu'Appelle brass band a lecture on "Ireland and its people, past and present," will be given by Mr. R. McManus, on Wednesday, 16th inst., at 20 o'clock, in the immigration building. Selections by the band will be given during the evening. Admission 25 cents. Proceeds to be devoted to the band fund.

—The meeting held at McLane yesterday to discuss the bonus was well attended. The opposition, in the person of Mr. Thomas Wright, put in an appearance. His speech was a rebuke of his letter as published in The Progress last week, without the addition of anything new. He was most effectually answered by the deputations sent to meet him.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Guerin of Whitewood gave their excellent costume recitals in the School house here on Wednesday evening of last week, to an appreciative audience. They deserve the highest praise for the really fine manner in which they rendered the several pieces of the program. It was to be regretted that the severe weather prevented them from having a fuller house.

—Mr. W. G. Shaver, has signified his intention of returning from Brockville at an early date, for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements to start a cheese factory, in this district. As this country offers every facility for an industry of this kind, and will to a large extent benefit the farmers. We trust that all those who have decided to become patrons will hand in their names at an early date; either at The Progress office or to Mr. G. S. Davidson or Mr. A. Dundas.

—We have received a letter from Mr. John Plant for publication in The Progress, on the question of granting a bonus to the Wood Mountain and Qu'Appelle Railway. As it contains nothing new on the subject beyond what has already appeared in these columns, it is unnecessary to publish it. We think Mr. Plant wrote his letter while wanting more light on the question, and that he may yet see his way clear to support the bonus, therefore we deem it best not to submit him by the publication of his letter.

—Dr. W. G. Keown, surgeon-dentist, of Regina, will visit this town professionally on Monday, and Tuesday the 14th and 15th inst. He will be found at the Leland.

—Mr. F. L. Oser is in correspondence with a gentleman who is writing for twelve families in Manitoba, who are desirous of settling near this town. They will probably be located south of here.

THE CARNIVAL.

On Tuesday the second carnival of the season took place on Mr. T. C. Gorrell's skating rink. Every thing had been done by Mr. Gorrell to insure its success, but it is to be regretted that there were not so many in costume as at the previous one, though there was a good attendance of spectators. The brass band was present and gave some really excellent selections of music. The band has made most remarkable progress, their playing being now equal to many bands of long standing. There were some really good costumes which were not only expensive, but the cause of a good deal of work in their preparation. The following were in costume.

The Globe newspaper, Miss Bulley.
Pricella, Miss Talbot.
Britannia, Miss B. Adams.
Flower Girl, Miss Jessie Loux.
Prospector, J. Longpre.

The judges were Messrs. Hodgson, Vickers and Gamble.

WE WONDER

—Where the mud is to be got just now?
—How his high mightiness is going to squelch The Progress anyway?
—Why a farmer will refuse to help make a better market for his produce?
—Who will be so blind to their own interests as not to come out like men and vote for the railway?
—Who made the nocturnal garment, who filled the contract for the material, and where a room was found big enough in which to make it?

INDIAN HEAD.

—Who is going to be assessor from Sinitaluta?
—What about the wolves? Do they howl at night?
—Miss Crawford returned on Saturday from a ten weeks visit to Regina.

—The Council meets on Saturday, 12th inst., and the kickers are beginning to arrive.

—Bill Fishleigh and Butch Gamble are happy again, both daughters and mothers are doing well.

—A Liberal Conservative Association formed here today, Feb. 8th, with Angus McKay, President; Robt. Crawford, 1st Vice-President; Wm. Breley, 2nd Vice-President; W. A. B. Fishleigh, Secretary. Thirty eight members were enrolled, and committees were appointed to thoroughly work the district.

It is said that the whole German army is to be called out in sections of 72,000 men each, to be drilled in the use of the repeating rifle.

The Governor of Candahar has succeeded in stirring up some of the native tribes against the British, and trouble is feared in continuing the construction of the Quetta railway.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian, missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Lung and Long Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Acted by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W.A. No. 149, Power's Block, Rochester, N.Y.
